PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Dedicated and enthusiastic student teacher pursuing a Bachelor of Arts with Education (Geography and Literature) at the University of Dar es Salaam. Practical teaching experience gained through placements at Ilongero Secondary School and Ubungo NHC Secondary School, implementing Tanzania's Competence-Based Curriculum (CBC) through learner-centred instruction. Strengths include lesson planning, classroom management, learner assessment, curriculum implementation, and instructional material development, complemented by GIS/GeoAI training and active student leadership. Aspires to build a career as a professional educator who improves the quality of secondary education through effective teaching, curriculum innovation, and continuous professional development.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Curriculum-Based Assessment Development

Developed a complete Form Two English assessment package, Table of Specifications, Examination Paper, and Marking Guide, following NECTA and University of Dar es Salaam standards.

Teaching Resource Development

Prepared comprehensive teaching notes for The Lion and the Jewel to support classroom instruction and examination preparation.

Literary Research

Conducted stylistic and cohesion analysis of African literary texts including The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives using contemporary literary approaches.

Regional Studies Project

Participated in research on the Community of Sahel-Saharan States (CEN-SAD), contributing recommendations on regional cooperation and development.

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

- Successfully completed teaching practice in two secondary schools
- Designed curriculum-aligned lesson plans and assessment tools following NECTA standards
- Conducted university-level educational and literary research
- Elected student leader; active civic and anti-corruption engagement since secondary school
